APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION
Things you need to know about applying for admission.

UA ADMISSIONS
The University of Alabama is committed to supporting the aspirations of its students. That dedication is reflected in an educational experience that demonstrates an unwavering pledge to teaching excellence, the advancement of scholarship and service to society.

FRESHMAN ADMISSIONS
The University of Alabama employs a competitive admission process that includes reviewing and evaluating each application on an individual basis for an applicant’s abilities as a student and a scholar. Decisions about the potential for your academic success at UA are based on your performance on the ACT and/or SAT, your high-school grade point average and your high-school course schedule. (For example: a student with a 21 ACT or 1000 SAT [math and critical reading only] along with a cumulative GPA of 3.0 should be successful at the University.) We are looking for students who show a commitment to academics and who welcome the robust exchange of ideas that occurs within a diverse and inclusive learning environment. Typically, the number of applications received exceeds the number of spaces available in the freshman class.

FRESHMAN ADMISSIONS REVIEW DECISION FACTORS
In terms of educational preparation, the college preparatory curriculum minimum unit requirements for regular admissions are:
• 4 units of English
• 4 units of social science, including world history or a comparable course
• 3 units of mathematics (must include algebra I, algebra II and one unit of either geometry, trigonometry or calculus)
• 3 units of natural science, including two courses with laboratory components
• 1 unit of a foreign language
• 5 units of academic courses
Students that exceed the minimum number of units in math, natural sciences or foreign language will be given additional consideration. The Advanced Academic Diploma awarded by Alabama high schools meets all University of Alabama course requirements.

A transfer applicant must have a grade point average of at least 2.0 on a 4.0 scale on all coursework attempted and must be eligible to return to his or her current institution. Transfer applicants who will have earned fewer than 24 semester hours (36 quarter hours) at the time they enroll at the University must also meet freshman admission standards.

The Capstone Creed requires that members of the University community “pursue knowledge; act with fairness, honesty, and respect; foster individual and civic responsibility; and strive for excellence.” In order to foster an environment conducive to those goals, the University requires you to answer questions related to disciplinary and criminal history. Such history will not automatically bar your admission. Each application will be reviewed on its individual merits.

The University of Alabama reserves the right to refuse admission or re-enrollment or to place conditions on admission or re-enrollment of applicants and former students who it determines represent a safety risk to University students, employees and University property. Applicants have the right to appeal any such decision to the Undergraduate Admissions Appeals Advisory Committee within 7 business days of the date the notice was received. However, any appeal received within 7 business days of the date notice was received but less than 30 days before the deadline for dropping/adding courses for the current academic term, as set on the University’s academic calendar, will be considered for enrollment in the following academic term.

The University has a vital interest in the character of its students, and therefore regards behavior as a reflection of a student's character and fitness to be a member of the University community. The University of Alabama reserves the right to refuse admission, readmission, and/or re-enrollment, to revoke admission, or to place conditions on applicants and former students whose behavior is deemed by University officials, in their sole discretion, to represent a safety risk to the University community or University property or otherwise adversely affects or is detrimental to the University community and/or the pursuit of its objectives. Applicants who are denied admission, re-admission, or re-enrollment based on the questions above have the opportunity to appeal any such decision to the Undergraduate Admissions Advisory Committee by providing notice within seven (7) calendar days from when the denial was received. Any appeal received within seven (7) calendar days of the date denial was received but less than thirty (30) days before the deadline for dropping/adding courses for the current academic term, as set on the University's academic calendar, will be considered for enrollment in the following academic term.

Withholding requested information or providing false or misleading information on your application, in the admission, readmission, or re-enrollment process, or in the appeal process may, among other things, make you ineligible for admission to the University, make your admission subject to revocation, or subject you to suspension from the University.

A criminal or disciplinary history is not an absolute bar to admission and only relevant matters will be taken into account for admission. Undergraduate students who plan to work for the University in any position will be subject to a background check, the result of which will be used to evaluate eligibility for hire and to confirm the accuracy of information in response to these application questions.

By submitting this application, I certify that the information contained herein is true, correct, and complete. I understand that false or misleading information may result in the revocation of an offer of admission or other disciplinary action, and that by submitting this application, I am authorizing and consenting to the University obtaining additional information from others pertinent to my record prior to attending the University. Additionally, I will promptly inform the University if there is a change to any of the responses in this application, including any changes to the information regarding my disciplinary/criminal history, such as new or additional criminal charges, whether the same occur during the application process or even after admission or matriculation.

I certify that I have complied with the provisions of the United States Military Selective Service Act (50 U.S.C. App 453) by registering with the Selective Service Board or that I am not yet 18 years of age and I will register when required or that I am not required by law to register. (This certification is required by State of Alabama Legislative Act 91-584.) I certify that all information given in this application is complete and accurate. I understand that withholding information requested or giving false information may make me ineligible for admission and enrollment or subject to suspension.

Capstone Creed: As a member of the University of Alabama community, I will pursue knowledge; act with fairness, honesty, and respect; foster individual and civic responsibility; and strive for excellence.
